"I am proud to have over 90 participants in a weekend that celebrates art across our country. I wish I was able to see everything over the four days, but I am really excited that our interactive Maps and Art Zones will be accessible all year round for participating spaces!" said Mackenzie Sinclair, co-organizer of the event.

The Canadian Art Hop will be a memorable experience for art lovers of all ages and backgrounds. For more information about the Canadian Art Hop, including event schedules and participating spaces, visit www.canadianarthop.ca or follow us on social media @CanadianArtHop.
