

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Canadian Art Hop Unveils Showcase of Over 60 Commercial Galleries Nationwide

Toronto, ON. February 23, 2024: The Art Dealers Association of Canada (ADAC) is thrilled to announce the launch of the Canadian Art Hop, a vibrant celebration of the arts including over 60 ADAC commercial galleries across Canada. Commencing Thursday, April 25 to Sunday, April 28, 2024, this inaugural event promises to captivate art enthusiasts, collectors, and community members with an array of art centered programming.

From coast to coast, the Canadian Art Hop will spotlight the diverse and dynamic tapestry of arts throughout the nation. Embracing a multitude of mediums, styles, and narratives, the participating galleries will be highlighted as hubs of creativity, fostering dialogue and engagement within their communities during the weekend and thereafter.

The Canadian Art Hop extends a warm invitation to local Museums, Artist Run Centres, and Non-for-Profit Galleries, encouraging collaboration and cross-pollination of institutions. We are excited to share that Contemporary Calgary (Calgary, AB), Mercer Union (Toronto, ON) and Museum London (London, ON) are among participating establishments, and we look forward to welcoming and announcing more participants as the month unfolds.

Upcoming Announcements:

Stay tuned for announcements regarding our sponsorships, participants, and programming details, determined to elevate the Canadian Art Hop in its first year. Through our partnerships the Canadian Art Hop aims to amplify its impact and reach, ensuring a memorable and enriching experience for all attendees.

Join the Conversation:

Engage with us on social media by following @canadianarthop using the hashtag #CANADIANARTHOP to share your excitement, discoveries, and insights throughout the event. Whether you're a seasoned art lover or a newcomer to the world of visual culture, the Canadian Art Hop welcomes one and all to join on this journey of exploration and discovery of our Canadian art galleries and spaces.

About The ADAC:

The Canadian Art Dealers Association (ADAC) is a national not-for-profit organization representing commercial galleries in Canada. With a mission to promote the dissemination and appreciation of Canadian art both nationally and internationally, ADAC serves as an advocate for the visual arts community, fostering collaboration, innovation, and excellence in artistic practice. Learn more at www.ad-ac.ca.